

Beverly Weiss Manne Appointed Co-Vice Chair Of the PBA Shale Energy Law Committee

News May 17, 2016

The law firm of Tucker Arensberg, P.C. is pleased to announce that Beverly Weiss Manne was appointed to serve as the Co-Vice Chair of the Pennsylvania Bar Association's ('PBA') Shale Energy Law Committee. The appointment was made by PBA President-Elect Sara Austin at the House of Delegates meeting on May, 13, 2016. The Shale Energy Law Committee keep members of the bar apprised of developments within the field of shale energy law by fostering communications and facilitating education for both attorneys through CLE programming, and the public through participation in community programs. It also monitors legislative developments and/or make recommendations concerning legislation and regulations affecting such interests.

Beverly is the Chair of Tucker Arensberg's Insolvency and Creditors' Rights Department and represents secured and unsecured creditors, lessors and buyers of assets in bankruptcy cases, non-judicial restructurings and in complex, and distressed business and commercial credit situations and commercial finance matters.

Beverly earned her undergraduate degree, magna cum laude, and Phi Beta Kappa, from the University of Pittsburgh and her Juris Doctor from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law.