

State Representative Dan Miller's 4th Annual Disability and Mental Health Summit

News March 14, 2017

Nora Gieg Chatha and Brittany Holzer will be speaking at State Representative Dan Miller's 4th Annual Disability and Mental Health Summit on March 23rd. The conference runs from March 22nd – 24th.

Their session is on Financial Planning: Planning for one's financial future is tough enough, but for people with a diagnosis, it can be uniquely challenging. In the session they will review how tools such as powers of attorney, special needs trusts and guardianships can be useful and how to get started on your plan.

For more information on the Summit use this link: <http://www.disabilitysummit.com/>