

Daniel Conlon Appointed Solicitor for the Borough of Rosslyn Farms

News June 18, 2018

The law firm of Tucker Arensberg, P.C. is pleased to announce that at the June 11 regular meeting of the Council of the Borough of Rosslyn Farms, Daniel C. Conlon was appointed as the Solicitor for the Borough, effective immediately. Rosslyn Farms is a suburban borough located 5 miles west of Pittsburgh.

Daniel is an attorney in the firm's Business and Corporate Group, in which he is a member of the Municipal & School Group, Real Estate and Land Use/Zoning groups. His practice focuses on municipal law, real estate and zoning. Prior to entering private practice Daniel was a Judicial Intern for the Hon. David S. Cercone; Judicial Intern for the Supreme Court of Costa Rica and a Law Clerk for the City of Pittsburgh Law Department.

Daniel earned his Juris Doctor from the Duquesne University School of Law where he was a Senior Staff Editor, Duquesne Business Law Journal, Merit Scholarship Recipient and Pro Bono Program Certificate of Recognition. Daniel received his undergraduate degree from North Park University, magna cum laude.