

Paul Welk Receives Service Award

News November 12, 2018

Paul Welk received the Board of Directors Service Award from the Private Practice Section of the American Physical Therapy Association at their Annual Awards Dinner held in Colorado Springs, CO. The award honors the individual who has made extraordinary contributions above and beyond the duties of their role. The Board of Directors selected Paul because his “service to the Private Practice Section exemplifies the intent of the award”.