

Priority COVID-19 Fraud Enforcement

Articles, COVID 19: Answers to Business Challenges, Privacy, Technology and Data Security April 23, 2020

Although the Office of the Inspector General (“OIG”) has previously announced that it would exercise discretion with respect to financial arrangements entered into to facilitate and enhance the availability of COVID-19 testing, the attached Memorandum from the Office of Attorney General also indicates enhanced enforcement scrutiny with respect to fraudulent testing.

For additional information contact Mike Cassidy.