

Daniel C. Conlon, Esq. Elected to Duquesne Law Alumni Association Board of Governors

News May 22, 2020

Daniel Conlon was elected to serve on the Board of Governors for the Duquesne Law Alumni Association (DLAA). During his three-year term, Daniel will work along with the other DLAA board members to support the DLAA's mission to provide mentorship, networking events, and support for alumni of the law school. The Association also generates funding for current students who demonstrate need and academic excellence and for adjunct faculty to assist in the preparation for bar exam courses and materials.
