Beverly Weiss Manne has been elected to the Commercial Law League of America Bankruptcy Section Executive Council through 2023. The Commercial Law League of America (CLLA) is a trusted legal network of commercial law attorneys and collection agencies. The not-for-profit CLLA has connected experienced attorneys with credit grantors, lending institutions and other commercial credit, bankruptcy and general finance industry members through networking, education, legislative advocacy and specialized legal services since 1895.

Beverly is the co-chair of the Bankruptcy & Creditors' Right Group and represents secured and unsecured creditors, lessors, and buyers of assets in bankruptcy cases, non-judicial restructurings and in complex, and distressed business and commercial credit situations and commercial finance matters.

Beverly has been selected as a Pennsylvania Super Lawyer and as a Best Lawyer in America in the area of Bankruptcy & Creditor-Debtor Rights Law.

Beverly received her Juris Doctor from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law, and her undergraduate degree from the University of Pittsburgh, magna cum laude.
