

President Trump Issues Surprise Billing Executive Order

Articles September 29, 2020

By Michael Cassidy

On September 24, 2020, President Trump issued an Executive Order encouraging Congress to restrict surprise billing and prevent third party payors from denying care to patients with pre-existing conditions. President Trump wants Congress to act prior to the end of the year, but obviously there is not much chance of that happening.

For additional information contact Mike Cassidy.