

Employment and Labor Law Attorney Albert Lee to Speak at Upcoming Safety, Security & Human Resources National Conference & Exhibition (SSHR)

News, Speaking April 19, 2022

Albert S. Lee, Esq., alee@tuckerlaw.com, (412) 594-5611

On April 27th, Albert Lee will co-present, “Legally Avoiding Hiring Your Next Injury” at the ATA’s 2022 Safety, Security & Human Resources National Conference & Exhibition (SSHR). This presentation will highlight job characteristics where stronger results are seen, the process to create a legal program, and how to address recruiting concerns through a thoughtful and careful approach towards screen design. Finally, two case studies will be shared showing the impact of the program on different fleet configurations.

This conference is expected to attract 350+ trucking professionals for educational sessions, committee meetings, interactive exhibits and opportunities to connect with colleagues.

#SSHR22 will cover the most critical topics in trucking safety, security and human resources. Click here for more information or to register.
