

Litigation Associate Attorney

Tucker Arensberg, P.C., is a growing, highly-collaborative, mid-sized, full-service law firm that serves the needs of businesses and individuals alike. We have withstood the test of time since 1900 because of our core values. In every engagement we undertake, we are driven as counselors and partners to serve and enhance the business and needs of our clients. Our core purpose is to deliver personalized high-quality, responsive legal services in a timely and efficient manner that benefits our client. As an attorney with Tucker Arensberg, P.C., you will live true to our core values through our client first mentality and commitment to efficiency and transparency. You will practice law with a high level of ethics, personal responsibility and integrity in an environment that is both professionally and personally satisfying and rewarding. Our core values are the standards by which we conduct ourselves every day.

We seek a highly organized and motivated candidate who has exceptional research and writing skills. Experience should include brief writing, research, trial/arbitration support and eDiscovery. Experience in commercial litigation and/or federal court a plus. The successful candidate will work closely with our clients and other attorneys. The ideal candidate will have 2 to 4 years of Litigation experience which may include judicial clerkships.

Additionally, the associate attorney will be assigned a mentor through our mentorship program, an individual marketing budget for business development efforts along with guidance and direction for how to develop your practice. Tucker Arensberg also offers a collegial work environment and outstanding and desirable employee benefits. We're looking for a lawyer who can multi-task and work independently on projects from beginning to end.

Our office is in PPG Place near the vibrant Market Square in downtown Pittsburgh. We offer a flexible work environment with our lawyers currently having the option to work in the office or remotely.
