

Steve R. Bovan

A Pittsburgh based transactional attorney with a varied practice that focuses on real estate, banking, contracts, general business and estate planning/administration.

Steve is a versatile attorney who is as comfortable working with business professionals on a sophisticated business matter as he is working with individuals on their estate plan. Steve has broad real estate experience that includes common residential property matters such as sale by owner and complex commercial matters such as 1031 tax-deferred exchanges. Steve counsels business clients from their business venture's infancy through daily business matters and finally to disposition of the business by sale or succession.
