

Insurance Disputes

For many companies, insurance disputes are all too common in this era of risk management when almost anything can be covered by an insurance policy. Tucker Arensberg's attorneys possess diverse experience in insurance litigation, claims handling procedures, risk management solutions and coverage disputes. Our services range from providing simple advice regarding the interpretation of policy language to litigating multi-million dollar coverage disputes in Pennsylvania and other state and federal courts. We regularly counsel clients in insurance coverage matters involving:

- Liability claims
- Property losses
- Product liability
- Construction claims
- Errors and omissions coverage
- Directors' and officers' claims
- Employment practices coverage
- Environmental liability
- Excess/umbrella coverage
- Intellectual property coverage
- Accident, health and disability coverage
- Business interruption claims
- Professional liability policies (attorneys, engineers, accountants)
- Advertising injury
- Fidelity and surety bonds
- Reinsurance
- Bankruptcy-related coverage issues

Our attorneys' litigation experience relating to insurance carriers and self-insured entities includes:

- First-party and third-party claim litigation
- Declaratory judgment actions
- Subrogation services
- Bad faith and extra-contractual liability defense
- Agency/broker liability disputes
