

Medical Marijuana

Growers, dispensaries and investors in the new, developing and uncertain Medical Marijuana industry can count on Tucker Arensberg, P.C. to provide direct industry participants with legal advice regarding the Medical Marijuana Act, medical marijuana regulations, and the latest industry developments.

Tucker Arensberg attorneys advise clients on the following issues related to medical marijuana:

- Entity formation and structuring
- Application process and licensing with the PA Department of Health
- Corporate and commercial transactions, mergers and acquisitions and financing
- Real estate matters
- Intellectual Property licensing
- Zoning requirements
- Privacy regulations
- Records retention and document management
- Litigation
- Compliance with regulations

Employers and those who may wish to do business with direct industry participants are also affected by the Medical Marijuana Act and may have legal concerns about this developing industry. Tucker Arensberg's Medical Marijuana Practice Group is prepared to advise businesses on the issues that may arise from the legalization of medical marijuana as it relates to issues such as:

- Labor and employment
- Workers Compensation claims
- Litigation
- General liability matters
- General commercial matters
- Intellectual property protections and commercial licensing agreements
- Estate planning matters

Tucker Arensberg is prepared to meet the needs of clients navigating the new legal realities of the medical marijuana industry in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Please review the Medical Marijuana Disclaimers prior to contacting the firm.